The Contract Has been Terminated, now what?

Nowadays anything can happen in a transaction. As your coordinator we do a lot of work on the front end of the transaction. The following policy is in place for all transactions and all agents.

- If the transaction falls apart within 3 days of acceptance of the contract there will be no charge incurred.
- After the time frame above, if the contract is terminated for any reason, there is a $50 Admin Fee
- If an agent has more than 3 terminations within a quarter the full C2C fee will be charged. This resets every quarter.
